

Julian Botha

Julian Botha was born in Johannesburg and attended school at De La Salle Holy Cross College. Subsequently he obtained his BA(law) and LLB degrees at the Rand Afrikaans University and Certificate in Medicine and Law from the University of Pretoria.

He practiced for 4 years for own account, primarily in criminal law and general litigation.

Subsequently joined the trade union Hospersa for 3 years as a labour relations advisor and then joined SAMA initially as an industrial relations advisor (for one year) and for the past eight years as the senior legal advisor of SAMA. Recently he joined the Private Practice Department at SAMA as the Strategic Accounts Manager in order to expand his contribution to SAMA in respect of business development, while retaining his contribution to legal issues.

Fields of expertise include medical law, ethics, labour law, corporate governance and compliance, as well as strategic planning.

Interests and hobbies include Golf, Tennis, Chess, Karate and composing music