

Prof. Shadrick Mazaza

Prof. Shadrick Mazaza is a specialist family medicine physician and an adjunct faculty member at the Graduate School of Business, University of Cape Town where he teaches healthcare management and leadership. He is a visiting fellow of Leeds University Business School's Centre for Innovation in Health Management, United Kingdom.

He studied Biology and Physics before studying medicine at the Victoria University of Manchester in the United Kingdom. He trained fully in internal medicine at Groote Schuur Hospital, University of Cape Town. While in private practice in Cape Town, he obtained a master's degree in family medicine at UCT. He is Fellow of the College of Family Physicians of the Colleges of Medicine of South Africa.

He is a member of the board of the Council for Health Services Accreditation of Southern Africa (COHSASA). He is also founding President of Pan African Institute of Healthcare Management dedicated to development of faculty for healthcare management development; Deputy president (and immediate past president) of the South African Academy of Family Physicians; Chairman of the Specialist Private Practice Committee and board member of the South African Medical Association (SAMA); Serves on the Council of the College of Family Physicians of South Africa; Founding president of Southern African Health Technology Assessment Technology Society (SAHTAS) and founder and director of African Consciousness Institute.